* Return fares

(Note: Rates are subject to change. Discounted rates require 7-day advance payment. The vessel, Our Lady of Medjugorje, leaves Pier 14 at midnight of Friday, arriving in Tagbilaran on Sunday at 7:00 am, a 28 hour-travel by sea. The only airline servicing Tagbilaran City everyday is Asian Spirit. For Luzon participants who are on a tight budget, we suggest a combination of sea travel from Manila to Tagbilaran, and air travel via Asian Spirit on return flight)

WHAT IS COVERED BY THE REGISTRATION FEE?

The live-out registration fee of P 2,400 includes conference meals (lunch and two snacks) for Day 1 and 2, seminar kit, handouts, and certificate. An additional P600 will be charged for the third day cultural tour, which will include a river cruise with luncheon on board.

For live-in participants, the registration fee of P 3,800 includes hotel accommodation for a 3-days-2-nights (beginning May 12 to May 14) stay with breakfast (starting from May 13 to May 14), conference lunch, snacks and dinner for two days (May 12 and May 13), free hotel transfers from airport/seaport to hotel and vice versa, and free use of hotel sports and conference facilities, including swimming pools, game halls and tennis courts. Total cost per live-in participant is P 4,400 to include the cultural tour, seminar kit, handouts, and certificate. Accompanying guest will cost P 3,300.

Cultural Tour

Bohol is known not only for its natural wonders---awesome Chocolate Hills, caves, home of the tarsier, superb beaches, and dive spots, but more importantly for its rich historical and cultural heritage. From the hotel, a tour coach will take us to the outskirts of the city to see the Shrine of the Blood Compact, visit the Dauis Church which boasts of life-like ceiling murals and “miraculous” freshwater well at the foot of its altar, and the nearby Hinagdanan (Dauis) Cave, featuring spectacular stalactite and stalagmite formations. From here, the tour takes us to Loay town to observe their cottage industries—bolo-making and nipa-weaving. Then proceed to the interior part leading to Carmen town, driving through the 3-kilometer Mahogany forest (the “little Baguio”), on the way to the Chocolate Hills, where it will take us to the Tourist Complex on top one of the hills to view this 8th world wonder. From here to Loboc to visit the 2nd oldest church in Bohol, we board a Catamaran-style floating restaurant for a one-hour cruise along Loboc River with a sumptuous lunch while being entertained by a guitarist. The cruise ends at Busay Falls. On the way back, the tour passes by Baclayon Church, one of the oldest stone churches in the country, built by the Jesuits in 1595. It houses a museum with many historic treasures and antiques. On the way back to the hotel or the airport, participants may choose to stop at University of Bohol Library or at souvenir shops along the way.

Note: Bohol Fiesta, a month-long celebration of fiestas in the entire Bohol province, begins on the first weekend in May. Participants are advised to book for transportation early to avoid delays.
