

NETWORKING FOR SURVIVAL : A SHARING OF CONSORTIAL EXPERIENCES

Last August 12, 2004 PAARL conducted a symposium on the topic “Networking For Survival : A Sharing Of Consortial Experiences” at the Financial Center Area, World Trade Center, Pasig City. It was attended more than 180 librarians. Lunch buffet was sponsored by the National Book Store.

Among the panel of speakers were: Ms. Lourdes T. David on the DOST-ESEP Consortium, Dr. Teresita G. Hernandez on the Mendiola Consortium, Ms. Lolita P. Gonzales on the Inter-Institutional Consortium (Taft), Ms. Belen P. Vibar on the Ortigas Consortium, Ms. Jocelyn L. Ladlad on the European Studies Consortium Program, Dr. Briccio M. Merced, Jr. on the newly launched Davao Colleges and Universities Network (DACUN), Ms. Corazon M. Nera on the Intramuros Library Consortium, and Ms. Prudenciana C. Cruz on the E-Library Network.

The presentations shared by our panel of speakers are reproduced in this issue as requested by participants.