CAREER SERVICES INTERVENTION IN PERSEF3 POST-WORKSHOP ASSIGNMENT

Prepared and Designed on June 19, 2009

by Hector Teodoro Miranda and Richard Elan Tan

INTRODUCTION / RATIONALE

For the continuous improvement of the Career Services Intervention Workshops in Persef3, the Career Management Team introduces an innovative and more relevant post-workshop activity for its participants. In the previous academic year, the post-workshop assignment was to submit an edited version of the participants' resume based on what they have learned from the Saturday training with the Pool of Career Development Facilitators. After assessing last academic year's experience and evaluation summaries, the Career Management Team wants to maximize the career learning and development opportunities of its participants,

OBJECTIVES

Mainly, the revision aims to achieve the following objectives after giving the new post-Career Services Persef3 Intervention workshop assignment:

- a. To continuously innovate and become more creative in extracting more relevant evaluative feedback from the career development workshop;
- b. To identify the major strength or part of the career exploration workshop that has the most appeal amongst the participants;
- c. To enthuse the participants further in widening and clarifying their career options with reference to the local and global trends;
- d. To assess the readership and impact of the New Career Services Online Career Library as a career development tool;
- e. To gather the recommendation of the participants as to the usability of the Online Career Library.
