... Providing students with the opportunity to directly contribute in nation building

NATIONAL SERVICE TRAINING PROGRAM

The National Service Training Program (NSTP) is a curriculum requirement for all college students under Republic Act (RA) No. 9163. The law provides an opportunity for the youth to directly contribute in nation building. Under the program, first year Lasallian students have the option to take either the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) or Civic Welfare Service Training Service (CWTS).

↪ ROTC deals with military training that will motivate, train, organize, and mobilize students/ youth for national defense preparedness.

ROTC

↪ CWTS provides an opportunity for students to share their time, talent, energy, and resources with marginalized communities/ sectors.

CWTS

ROTC	CWTS
ROTC is for you if... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>👍 You want to learn more about proper military courtesy and discipline</li> <li>👍 You appreciate the conduct of military drills and ceremonies</li> <li>👍 You are interested to gain knowledge on various military subjects</li> <li>👍 You prefer to complete NSTP spending most of your time in the clean, safe, and secure premises of the University</li> <li>👍 You truly desire to contribute to national defense preparedness</li> </ul>	CWTS is for you if... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>👍 You are physically fit (students with health problems may opt for ROTC since exemptions are allowed and a light-duty program is offered)</li> <li>👍 You are willing to take a jeepney ride to a depressed community and interact with the people there for at least eight hours and even spend overnight in the place.</li> <li>👍 You wish to share your time, talent, energy, and resources (cash or kind) in providing services to the community where you will be assigned</li> <li>👍 You truly desire to serve poor communities</li> </ul>
