BEFORE YOU BEGIN A SEARCH:

- What kind of residence unit do you want to live in?
- What are your transportation needs?
- What furnishings/amenities are essential?
- What services do you need to be accessible?
- What are your financial means?

WHILE SEARCHING FOR A PLACE:

- Use the information contained herein as a guide.
- Consult with other students for the reputation of the residence/establishment.
- Inspect the actual physical unit you intend to rent or lease.
- Review the conditions written in the contract of lease (rate, deposit, advance, termination, additional costs, restrictions, damages, inspections, etc.)
- Check the security & sanitation (alarms, clean and free from disease-carrying pests, etc.)
- Check the fire safety of the unit (fire escapes, smoke detectors, sprinklers, etc.)

AFTER MOVING IN:

- Complete a thorough inventory of your unit.
- Always get a written receipt from your landlord when you pay your rent or deposits.
- Keep a record of your transactions.
- Report to the landlord/administrator/manager any problem regarding facilities and accommodation.
