

Company Name: UPC Renewables Philippines

Company Background: UPC Renewables is a renewable energy developer with over twenty years of experience in building wind and solar project in several countries such as the Philippines, Indonesia, and the United States. In the Philippines, the company developed the Caparispisan Wind Farm in Pagudpud, Ilocos Norte.

Job Vacancy: Data Analyst

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Collect and maintain SCADA data from the wind/solar power plants
- Monitor performance of the wind/solar power plant, discover deviations and variances, and propose necessary actions
- Generate and provide data sets and analysis for internal and external entities
- Analyze the existing renewable energy systems and highlight areas of improvement
- Maintain knowledge of industry best practices, and commercial and operational opportunities to improve performance
- Manage routine availability, energy, and performance reporting; and
- Perform other duties as required

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in Mathematics, Engineering, Computer Science or related field is required; Master's degree in Engineering, Computer Science or Statistics preferred; Ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing; Must have good programming skills. Fresh graduates may apply.

Contact: Send your Resume/CV via email to angeli.silang@upcrenewables.com.ph, or submit a copy to our office at the 2708 The Trade and Financial Tower, 7th Avenue cor.32nd Street, Bonifacio Global City, Taguig City. Phone number: (02)5767961 loc. 114