Ge4 INNES Institute Vienna

2016 International Summer Schools

Overview

INNES Institute Vienna is a private institute which aims to stimulate intellectual and personal development in an open and diverse environment. We support intercultural interaction and academic exchange among our participants, lecturers, partners and colleagues all over the world who share the same idea of a peaceful world and respectful common living. We enable the participants in our courses to develop the knowledge and skills they need for succeeding in their fields. INNES Institute Vienna provides an educational platform for all creative and open-minded individuals to share their thoughts, expertise and experience. (refer to <http://www.innesvienna.net/about>)

International Summer Schools

Summer Schools are short term academic programs that discuss relevant academic topics and improve participants' soft skills. They are ideal for presenting, sharing and gaining knowledge over a short period of time. They provide the opportunity to combine learning with a visit to beautiful Vienna. We offer the perfect environment for studying, applying knowledge, and making friends and contacts for your future career.
