External Relations and Internationalization Office (ERIO)

announces the opening of

Scholarship Applications for Degree-awarding Programs for AY 2016-17 in French Institution of Higher Learning*Background

The Embassy of France to the Philippines welcomes applications for financial support from citizens of the Philippines, wishing to study for a degree awarded by a French institution of higher education.

Eligibility requirements

- Filipino national, graduate of a high school or university in the Philippines
- For enrolment in a degree-awarding program in France. All fields are eligible, including dual degrees.
- Knowledge of French is preferable but not required

Coverage of grant

These scholarships will cover part or all of the awardees' living fees, air travel, health insurance, and in most cases tuition for the expected length of their academic programs.

Applicants will need to apply to a degree-awarding program or an exchange program before submitting an application for financial support. Applications submitted without an acknowledgment of application or a letter of acceptance will not be considered by the Embassy.

Criteria for selection

- Overall strength of your application: academic excellence, effort put into the essay, secured scholarships, etc.
- Financial need
- Proficiency in French
