Student Exchange Program University Placement (StEP UP)

2016-2017 Soka University, Japan Student Exchange Program (One academic year)

What is in store for you at Soka University?

Soka University opened on April 2, 1971, in Hachioji in the suburbs of Tokyo. Preparations began seven years earlier, in June, 1964, when Daisaku Ikeda, president of Soka Gakkai International, first officially announced his intention to build a university founded on the principles of Soka (value-creating) education.

Education is the foundation of culture and the vital soil that nurtures each new generation. The university, a place where wisdom and character are forged, bears a particularly vital responsibility contributing to the flourishing and prosperity of human society, to the development of peace in the world. Soka University was founded on the basis of such an ideal, at a time when the need for a new university rooted in humanistic educational principles was felt. Its establishment was inspired by a vision of fostering creative, academically rounded individuals of wisdom and character through humanistic education based on an ethic of respect for the sanctity of life.

The spirit of these ideals is encapsulated in the three founding principles set forth by Mr. Ikeda and upheld by the university:

1. Be the highest seat of learning for humanistic education
2. Be the cradle of a new culture
3. Be a fortress of peace for humankind
