

Course Code: ACCCOB3

Course Title: Basic Management Accounting

Course Description:

This course ACCCOB3, Basic Management Accounting, is a basic course that combines the knowledge of management practice and makes use of accounting information for decision-making. It introduces a paradigm shift from preparation of financial statements to actual relevant usage in day-to-day management activities. The course exposes students to the preparation of internal reports tailor-fitted for management decision-making. The planning and controlling of management activities are emphasized through accounting and mathematical techniques that will allow for informed judgment.
