

Gift Acceptance Policy (from Advancement and Alumni Relations Manual)

DLSU will accept unrestricted and restricted gifts provided that such gifts are consistent with the University's corporate charter, mission-vision, academic purposes, and priorities.

Gifts received by DLSU must not inhibit it from seeking similar or different gifts from other donors. The University accepts gifts that do not discriminate on race, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, color, handicap, or any other basis prohibited by laws and statutes that govern the Republic of the Philippines.

The following is a list of gifts the University will not accept. The President's Council may add to this list as it deems necessary.

1. No gift will be accepted from illegal sources.
2. No gift will be accepted if it is under legal question.
3. Gifts with pre-conditions, generally, should not be accepted.
4. Gifts that will tarnish the image of the university will not be accepted.
5. Gifts that will cause the university to lose money will not be accepted.
6. Gifts that engage in the production and distribution of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and gambling activities.
7. Gifts that compromise the institution's academic integrity and freedom.
8. Gifts that produce goods that promote and insinuate violence, discrimination, illegal and immoral behavior, and lifestyles.
9. Gifts that imply partisan political activities, support political parties and candidates for public office, or want to use the schools for their political platforms and purposes.
10. Questionable gifts or donations which could result in controversy detrimental to the institution (e.g. companies or individuals facing corruption allegations and/or pending corruption cases, companies employing child labor and discriminatory labor practices, and whose products are controversial in nature).
